Local War Bond Drive Nears Close

Firemen Volunteer To Canvass City

Men of the Daly City Fire department have patriotically volunteered to canvass the city for donors for the San Mateo County Blood Bank. In 10 days or two weeks they will begin house-to-house calls on all residents. The cooperation of the entire community is asked in this project as more blood is in great demand for the war wounded.

The firemen will have pledge cards with them when they call and volunteers will fill in their name, phone number, and time preference. Later, these cards will be filed and sorted according to time preference at the headquarters of the Daly City War Council, city hall. Then the volunteers will be grouped and transportation provided to San Mateo where the County Blood Bank is located.

The San Mateo County Blood Bank is the agency which supplies blood and plasma for the use of civilians here in the event of disaster as well as its aid to the war wounded. The need is great and every volunteer will be serving his country by donating a pint of blood, the firemen pointed out.

Release Enrollment Figures For New Term

Pupils in schools of the Jefferson Elementary district began their new term, Monday, February 7. Enrollment figures revealed that Crocker school had 171 children in attendance; Woodrow primary, 257; Woodrow elementary, 310; Jefferson, 241; Jefferson annex, 25; Thornton, 51, and General Pershing, 195. These figures are exclusive of kindergarten youngsters of whom there are 69 at Woodrow primary, 24 at Jefferson, and 58 at Pershing.

At Friday night's graduation exercises for the district schools winners of the scholarship awards were made public for the first time. The scholarship prize given for the entire district by Daly City Unit No. 410, American Legion auxiliary went to two pupils rather than the usual one. Lorraine Massoni, Jefferson, and Louise Mjehovich, Woodrow, tied for the honor.

The Woodrow Wilson P. T. A. scholarship award went to Lora Barghini; the Crocker P. T. A. award, to Elisa Paradiso; and the Colma P. T. A. award, to Robert Lazzarini, of Jefferson school.

The awards for citizenship, presented at each graduation program by Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion, were given to Rena Feutrier and Jack McCaffrey, Jefferson; June Brandt and Frank Torkelson, Crocker; Janet Petersen and Herbert Fensin, Woodrow.

Announce Change In Board's Name

Announcing a change in name for War Price and Rationing Board No. 83-12-3, serving the Daly City area, Miss Genevieve Blue, chief clerk, pointed out that the correct appellation is now Office of Price Administration, Board No. 83-12-3. The board is located at 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, and is the headquarters for all price administration and rationing business in this locality.

This week, the board is mailing a report giving the highlights of the new simplified plan for the food rationing program and the use of tokens to retailers here. Any retailers who have not applied for their supplies of tokens yet were urged to do so at once to avoid inconvenience and delay when the tokens go into use for the public, February 27. Application should be made to the bank where each retailer has his ration banking account. Those who have no regular ration banking accounts may apply to their nearest bank.

Draft Board Has No Call For February

Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk at Daly City Draft Board No. 103, reports that no call for men has come in from the armed forces, this month. In all probability there will be none until the new system of pre-induction physical exams is thoroughly established and in operation. Daly City's first large group of men to take the pre-induction physicals will report to Army and Navy doctors at San Francisco headquarters, Monday, February 21.

Mrs. Flynn pointed out that the Daly City board's original supply of 1-A men is practically exhausted. Reclassification work is progressing, rapidly, however, and following the return of results in the pre-induction physicals the local board will be prepared to meet its next call for selectees.

The draft board meets every Tuesday evening to review cases. It is necessary for any man who wishes to appear before them to make an appointment in advance. Phone number is RAndolph 4075.

Four Units Plan Night PTA Meeting

Four local units of the Parent-Teacher association will join in presenting a night meeting in honor of Founders Day, Tuesday, February 15, at 7:30 in the high school auditorium, 6996 Mission street. The groups planning and participating in the program include Jefferson Union High School P. T. A., General Pershing P. T. A., Crocker P. T. A., and Woodrow Wilson P. T. A.

Daly City residents, especially parents, are urged to attend this meeting as it will be designed to present the aims and accomplishments of the P. T. A. and will give an unparalleled opportunity to become acquainted with the role of the P. T. A. in community affairs.

Main speaker for the event will be Mrs. Stella Jensen, president of the Seventeenth district, C. C. P. T., and member of the high school P. T. A.

Saturday Is Date Of Valentine Dance

Place for the Valentine dance planned by the Daly City Servicemen's club will be up at the camp rather than at 6201 Mission street, the committee announces. The gala event, to be held, Saturday night, February 12, will have music furnished by the popular Indians of Rhythm from Jefferson Union high school. Young ladies who will attend the dance are wearing formal for the occasion. They will meet at 7:30 in the club where transportation will be provided them to the camp.

Although the dance will not be held down at the club, the center will be open as usual for boys who do not care to attend the dance or boys from other camps.

Hostess organization, this week, is Woodrow Wilson P. T. A. The

In conjunction with their observance of National Boy Scout Week, Troop No. 141 has a window display at McGraw's pharmacy, 6300 Mission street, and Cub Pack No. 141 has a show window at Shannon Hardware company, 6370 Mission street. Local residents are invited to see the exhibitions.

Tomorrow evening, February 11, Group No. 141 Scouts, Cubs and Cubbies will hold a banquet at Grace Church of the Nazarene, Vista Grande and Santa Barbara avenues, beginning at 7 p. m. Following the dinner, there will be a court of honor for those who have earned badges.

There was an unusually large attendance at the banquet.

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

"It's really great to be home!" declared Captain Grant Smith, this week, as he relaxed to enjoy a 20-day furlough in his home town, after months of overseas duty which entailed several narrow escapes from death in the jungles or in the air in action against Jap Zeros.

Captain Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Smith, 258 Templeton avenue, has been in action in the South Pacific for the past 18 months. He gave an informal talk at the luncheon meeting of the Daly City-Colma Lions club, yesterday.

Smith doesn't need to read adventure yarns after some of the nerve-racking ordeals he has had to face. There was the time he was shot down over the jungle in the south Solomons for instance, and the time he set a Jap Zero aflame over Munda. He has been awarded the Air Medal and is in line for the Distinguished Flying Cross. He's a graduate of local schools. He received his wings at Phoenix, Arizona.

Captain Smith arrived here Saturday, February 5, and at the end of his 20-day furlough he will leave for Washington, D. C., where he expects to be reassigned to duty in the states.

The Record received a letter of thanks, this week, from Corporal Peter J. Silacci, who is with the medical section at the Pasadena Area hospital, U. S. Army. He says that when he finishes reading The Record he hands it along to Private First Class Manfred B. Hanson, another Daly City soldier, now an X-ray technician.

Silacci has been in the medical corps for nearly 17 months. He says he finds it interesting work, caring for sick and wounded soldiers. He mentioned that Corporal Dante Casentini is stationed at Hoff General hospital in Santa Barbara.

Silacci's folks live at 50 First avenue, Daly City.

Sergeant Evelyn Kennedy, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ciemoli, 813 Brunswick street, was home on furlough for several days last week. She left for her post at Omaha, Nebraska, Monday night, February 7.

Sergeant Kennedy, widow of Lieutenant Ray E. Kennedy, one of Daly City's first sons to lose his life in World War Two, is in charge of the recruiting office of the U. S. Marines at Omaha. She took her Marine Corps Women's Reserve basic training at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

On Thursday evening, February 3, Sergeant Kennedy's parents gave a party in her honor at their restaurant, The Colonial. There was a large group of men from Fort Daly City and WACs from San Francisco headquarters for the event. It was a highly successful party.

Good news was in store for Mr. and Mrs. William P. Bolger, 43 Risel street, last weekend when their son, Richard Bolger, phoned from San Diego that he was back from the South Pacific on furlough and would be home shortly.

Bolger, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, is a paratrooper with the U. S. Marine Corps. He took his advanced training at Elliot field, California, and received his wings in San Diego at the Marine base. He's seen plenty of tough fighting against the Japs and sent a battle-scarred Jap flag as a souvenir to his folks in November.

He left for overseas duty, March 9, 1943. While in New Caledonia he met Captain Grant Smith, another Daly City serviceman now home on furlough.

Donald W. McHugh, son of Councilman and Mrs. Howard McHugh, 247 Oliver street, is now at boot camp in Farragut, Idaho. He enlisted in the U. S. Navy in January and left for training camp, January 27. He's a graduate of Lick Wilmerding high school in San Francisco.

William Brandt, 473 Knowles avenue, has reenlisted in the U. S. Navy and will go back into active service, February 17. He has been employed by the San Francisco Examiner. His wife is Mrs. Jeanne Brandt and he has two sons, Billy and Bobby.

Mrs. Viva Talley, popular clerk at Keithley's market, is mighty proud of a clipping her husband, Master Sergeant Billy Talley, has just sent her from "Stars and Stripes." It tells of the exploits of the 301st Bombardment group to which Talley is assigned.

Early in January the group had flown its 200th mission in 17 months of overseas service, leading the Flying Fortress attack on Reggio Emilia in northern Italy. "Stars and Stripes" pointed out that the 301st was the second Fortress group to operate against Europe from Britain.

"After seven more missions over England, the outfit flew to North Africa soon after the invasion and has taken part in every major Fortress raid in the Mediterranean theatre," the article stated.

Two most interesting facts were revealed in the story: 1. the group is commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Carl T. Barthelmess, who was born in Essen, Germany, and came to the United States in 1925, and 2. the outfit flew its first 115 missions without the loss of a single crew.

Talley has been with the group for the full 17 months of its overseas operation. In all he has spent 19 months in overseas duty.

Sergeant Al Winter, son of Captain and Mrs. F. W. Winter, 619 San Diego avenue, is now in Great Britain. In fact, according to his latest letter, he's been there several months. He's sergeant major of his battalion. Before being sent overseas, Winter was at Camp Claiborne in Louisiana, and Camp Ellis in Illinois. He's with the Army Engineers.

He writes, "I understand they have lifted the lighting restrictions around San Francisco. Has that affected Daly City any? I kinda wish they would turn on a few more lights around here. I never in my life fell down so many stairs and ran into so many poles as I have over here. The other morning I was congratulating myself on the speed I was making in the dark on my way to the sergeants' mess when I found myself lying in the middle of a newly dumped coal pile, so now I have lost all that conceit and take it pretty easy. I always have to learn everything the hard way!"

Daly City Has Goal Of $140,000 To Meet

Daly City swings into the home stretch of its Fourth War Loan drive, driving steadily toward its quota of $140,000. With only six days to go, counting today, prompt cooperation from all local residents who have not as yet purchased those "extra" bonds is needed if the objective is to be realized by deadline, February 15.

With an approximate population of 10,000 it would only take the sale of less than a $25 War Bond per person to insure the goal, to be precise, $14 invested in War Bonds and Stamps for each man, woman and child in this community. That's not a lot when stacked up against the sacrifices being made on the fighting front by men from this same city.

Every fighting man from Daly City is worth a tribute of $350 invested in War Bonds by local residents. It's the least the home folks can do to say "thanks." From the card file kept at The Record office which records the name of each man about whom a story appears in the "News of Our Men and Women in Uniform" column it is indicated that better than 400 local boys are scattered the world around fighting for Uncle Sam. If this city contributes only $350 in honor of each of them it reaches its goal!

At the Daly City theatre, Manager Henry Combe reports that the Daly City Fire department and its ladies' auxiliaries had a very good week, February 1 through February 7, at the War Bond booth. He expressed his appreciation for their efforts in the Fourth War Loan drive. The final week, February 8 through February 15, is being taken by Daly City Post and Unit No. 410, American Legion. Objective of the War Bond drive at the theatre was to sell a War Bond for every seat in the house. Old Glory Post and Auxiliary No. 2044, V. F. W., and El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, N. D. G. W., had the first and second weeks at the bond booth respectively.

Forming a last minute reserve to sell at least one more extra bond in the last days of the Fourth War Loan, children of the Jefferson Elementary School district will act as junior salesmen in mop-up operations, February 11 to 15 inclusive, according to Superintendent R. L. Crane jr.

In recognition of their patriotic service individual U. S. Treasury department citations will be awarded students selling one or more bonds and a special citation will go to each school reaching its quota. Quota is one $25 bond for each pupil enrolled in the school, exclusive of kindergarten pupils. Stamps turned in on bonds cannot be applied toward this quota.

Application blanks will be supplied the pupils. The days on which children acting as junior salesmen will be asked to contact their relatives, friends and neighbors, after school hours, will be Friday, February 11, through Tuesday, February 15. Public cooperation is asked for the patriotic junior salesmen who will shortly be canvassing the city.

Veteran Firemen's Assn. Has Banquet

Daly City Veteran Firemen's association held its annual banquet, Saturday evening, February 5, with a large group of members and city officials in attendance. The event was held at the Colma Italian cafe.

The association had its regular meeting, Friday evening, February 4, at 188 Santa Barbara avenue. President E. J. Romer called the meeting to order at 8 p. m. The committee making preparations for the Saturday night banquet submitted its reports.

The meeting was adjourned out of respect to the group's past president, William Goldkuhl, who passed away recently.

"Top Man" Comes To Local Theatre

Praised as one of the most entertaining comedy-dramas of the season, Universal's "Top Man" comes tonight to the Daly City theatre. Co-starred in the picture are Donald O'Connor, Susanna Foster, Lillian Gish, Richard Dix, and Peggy Ryan. Outstanding players in the supporting cast include Anne Gwynne and Noah Beery jr., while diverting musical specialties are contributed by the celebrated Borrah Minevitch Rascals, the Bobby Brooks Quartette, and Count Basie and his orchestra.

The story of "Top Man," declared to be intimately appealing, deals humorously and dramatically with present day family affairs and situations close to the heart of so many Americans who have readjusted their lives to meet necessary wartime changes.

Young Donald O'Connor, star of the recent screen success, "Mister Big," and appearing in the title role of the new film, is said to outshine his previous portrayals. He plays the part of a resourceful youngster who becomes the head of the family after his dad accepts a Navy commission. Susanna Foster of "Phantom Of The Opera" fame, is seen as Donald's girl friend and sings several numbers during musical sequences of the story.

Dix has the "father" role opposite Miss Gish whose screen appearance will be welcomed by countless moviegoers who remember the many silent pictures in which she starred. Miss Gwynne and Noah Beery jr., are teamed in situations similar to those which enhanced their popularity in "We've Never Been Licked" and "Frontier Badmen."

"Top Man," an original story by Ken Goldsmith, was scenarized by Zachary Gold. Mal Mohr was the cameraman and the picture was directed by Charles Lamont.

Mrs. Ann Welsh is chairman and she announces that playing will begin at 8:30. There will be many nice prizes and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Wednesday evening, February 16, the executive board of the auxiliary will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 in Legion hall. All members of the board are urged to be present.

Current Attraction At Daly City Theatre

Red Cross Has Big Job On Home Front, Too!

While the American Red Cross, through its various services to the men in the armed forces, is engaged in its largest job both overseas and in the military and naval posts in this country, its peacetime work must go on unhampered. There is its "Disaster Service," for example.

In the year just past, disasters—natural and otherwise—struck on the home front 178 times. A total of 1,010 lives were lost and 3,203 persons were injured through these disasters. More than 67,000 buildings were destroyed and forty-five states affected. The Red Cross rendered emergency aid to 119,295 persons.

What is a "Disaster?" A flood plays havoc with a community, causing suffering and privation to many people. A large fire makes many homeless and for a time in need of life's necessities. A hurricane whirls through, demolishing buildings, crops and causing helplessness on many sides. These and any similar situations which cause extensive need for emergency assistance are considered under the head of Red Cross "disaster."

In such instances the American Red Cross is on the job promptly and takes over, sets up, and operates the machinery of relief until normal conditions are restored. Since there is a Red Cross chapter in practically every county in the United States, disaster relief can be gotten quickly under way; years of experience have taught the best methods of operation.

Of the 178 disasters which occurred last year, 68 were fires, 42 floods, and 32 tornadoes. Others were plant and mine disasters and train, airplane, and bus wrecks.

The program was arranged by Mrs. Anne Eason, Founders Day chairman for the high school unit.

The Jefferson Union High School P. T. A. will not hold its regular second Thursday of the month meeting, today.

O. P. A. News Items For Local Housewives

If you've had trouble finding the kind of shoes you want for your children, here's encouraging news. The War Production Board in a move to meet the shortage of infants' and children's footwear has required tanners of upper shoe leather to set aside a stated amount of their monthly civilian production to be sold only for manufacture of youngsters' shoes. This action means about 20 per cent more upper leather for children's and infants' footwear.

And while we're on the subject of shoes, February 7 marked one year of this rationing program. The first anniversary finds production of ration-type shoes for civilians fairly stable, although the leather situation still remains tight. That means the ration cannot be increased, but will go along at the same rate. Meantime, Stamp No. 18 from War Ration Book One and Airplane Stamp No. 1 in War Ration Book Three (Continued on Page 5)

After the dinner, the party adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hesselein to complete the evening by cutting a large cake decorated with gold leaves in honor of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Hesselein were married fifty years ago in Washburn, Illinois, but have lived in Daly City for the past forty years and are well known in the community. Hesselein is a member of the Daly City Veteran Firemen's association. The couple received many messages of congratulations from their friends and relatives.

In addition, they are taking the entire period at the Granada theatre in San Francisco. This makes the third time the local group has assisted the manager of the Granada with bond drives.

Mrs. Allene Lehigh is chairman and she was assisted at the Daly City by Walter Lehigh, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dorn, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Brulez, Mrs. Belando, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Doolin, Mrs. Muriel Walsh, and Mrs. Dolly Hancock.

HAS THE "MELTING POT" FAILED?

The case of 22-year-old June Arill Terry, one of many American citizens of Japanese parentage, is a case to make all who believe in democracy stop and think.

Mrs. Terry was born and reared and educated in Martinez. When the Japanese were moved away from the coast she left with the others. Since then she has been officially adjudged loyal to the land of her birth and ordered by the Western Defense command to return to her home. But her high-strung, perhaps hyper-patriotic neighbors have made it thoroughly miserable for young June Terry, for her baby son and for her young husband, an oil company employee.

We have no information on the affair that has not been printed in the public press, but it appears to smack of intolerance in a degree reminiscent of the last World War. Signs posted around the Terry home saying, "No Japs wanted here. Move on!" are reminders of the days when Americans of German descent were ousted from their jobs and homes, when sauerkraut was re-named "liberty cabbage," when German-named stores and restaurants failed and school children whose names sounded Teutonic were hunted and stoned when they ventured out.

In the burning heat of their patriotism people often forgot in those times what democracy meant. And today, fairly or unfairly, Japanese are going to be highly unpopular people hereabouts for a long time to come.

There are many who sincerely believe that people of Japanese blood can never be good Americans. If that is true, then is that boasted American ability to meet, understand and make room for all other races a myth? Is the American melting pot a failure? Racially, the Chinese are as unassimilable as the Jap; yet there is no doubt they are exemplary citizens.

The main matter to be dealt with here and now is not nearly so complex. It is simply the matter of making very sure that Japanese or Germans or Italians among us have authoritative clearance as loyal Americans to be here—and then according them the same decent treatment that all good citizens have the right to expect.

LINCOLN WOULD LAUGH

More than once, as history and the life of Abraham Lincoln show, the Great Emancipator, whose birthday we celebrate this month, was saved in the nick of time by a great and useful sense of humor.

We believe that Lincoln's beloved, homely face would twist into a grin if he could read the Seabee composition paraphrasing his own historic address at Gettysburg, written nearly meter for meter with his words, but describing the plight of a construction battalion in the South Pacific.

"Two score and seven days ago," carpenter's mate Arvin Sell writes, "our battalion brought forth upon this island a new project, conceived in a foxhole and dedicated to the proposition that all Japanese are created evil."

"The world will little note nor long remember what we build here, but we shall never forget the hash and beans we ate here. . . . Let us resolve that we shall not have sweat in vain; that this battalion shall have 30 days of freedom in the U. S. by Easter, and that this thought shall not perish from our hopes."

The parody will offend none but the narrow and unthinking. The boys in the battle areas need a sense of humor as desperately as Lincoln did in his war travails. We venture the belief that the great man himself—who never could keep a straight face when anything comical was going on, and who understood ceremonial pomp far less than he understood his fellow men—would be the first to give a loud guffaw at the humor of the struggling young Americans who, unabashed, produce a parody on the words of their idol.

And Abraham Lincoln, who pardoned a young sentry who fell asleep on duty, undoubtedly would hope that those Seabee buddies of carpenter's mate Sell, building their bridges and gun emplacements and sanitary systems in the South Pacific mud, get their "30 days of freedom in the U. S. by Easter." We do.

DO YOU MEASURE UP?

The Fourth War Loan drive is in full swing. And now is a good time to address a word to the individual whose principal motive in buying bonds is the attainment of future financial security and a regular income from interest payments on the bonds. The trouble with this type of bond buyer is that when further purchases become inconvenient and no longer fit his "investment program," he tends to keep his pocket buttoned. He claims that he has done his share. The time is long past for this line of thinking.

Bonds today must be bought by individuals in prodigious quantities. Patriotism, not personal profit, should compel their purchase. As a matter of fact, if we mean what we say in glowing tributes to freedom and our professional willingness to make sacrifices to win the war, we should be glad to buy bonds regardless of interest enticements.

Unless bond buying, in the last analysis, is wholly dictated by the urge to cast our lot so far as possible with the men at the front, we can lay no claim to being patriotic. Real patriots care not a whit for personal security or profit when their nation is in peril.

Our freedom is in deadly peril because too many people are working for time and a half instead of for victory. The Fourth War Loan campaign is an opportunity to turn over a new leaf. Buy bonds for the sake of your country—and forget yourself. If you do this, you can justly call yourself a true American.

"Sleep It Off"
Now At Geary Theatre

Sooner or later someone was bound to think of the many mirth-making moments that could be crowded into the scenes of a farce comedy wherein a feminine night club entertainer goes through college. It remained, however, for Lyford Moore, California newspaperman, and Major Harlan Thompson, famous Broadway playwright, to do it first.

Result? The rollicksome, frolicsome farce comedy in three acts, entitled, "Sleep It Off," with the famous star, Ann Corio, appearing on the stage of the Geary theatre, San Francisco, for a limited engagement.

Hannah Davis (Ann Corio) as the night club star is engaged to furnish her own inimitable style of entertainment at a collegiate get-together. Arriving at the famous Trophy room, Hannah becomes involved in a series of riotous and laugh provoking events, to the amazement of the faculty, alumni and undergraduates, and the amusement of audiences.

In "Sleep It Off," the Canadian Army's number one allure girl, Ann Corio, is supported by a company of Broadway farceurs, including Charlie (Dizzy) Smith, zany of the Aldrich family, Stan Brown, Ben Welden, Kay Hammond, Michael Jeffrey, P. J. Kelly, Betsy Howard, Evelynne Eaton, Edwin and Warren Mills, Fred Kohler Jr., and Bob McCutchin. Matinees Saturday only.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

Without American machines the United Nations never could have won the war," Stalin said in his toast at the Tehran Conference. He was saying, in effect, that without Lend-Lease the war could not have been won.

The word "Lend-Lease" has become part of our national vocabulary, but how many understand just how it operates? A book that explains it in clear and forthright language is "Lend-Lease—Weapon for Victory" by Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., who in August, 1941, was appointed Administrator of Lend-Lease, which position he held until he was made Under Secretary of State in September 1943.

In faraway India, a bearded Hindu turns out parts for guns in a factory, with the help of American precision tools. An English housewife uses powdered eggs, sent by America, to whip up a cake for her family. In a Soviet war plant, power is supplied by American electric generating equipment. A Lend-Lease tank, manned by Australians, attacks the Japanese in New Guinea. In China, while the Burma Road was being built, a Lend-Lease mission set up first-aid stations and hospitals to care for the workers, sick with malaria and malnutrition.

All over the world, machines, munitions, gasoline, food, clothes, drugs, and many other products have been and are being sent to the Allied nations under the most extensive plan of its kind ever put into execution. Mr. Stettinius' book tells a thrilling story, and one that all Americans should know and take pride in.

The Book-of-the-Month Club announces a dual selection for March: Ludwig Bemelmans' light-hearted novel of pre-war Paris, "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" and "Crazy Weather" by Charles L. McNichols. "Crazy Weather" is the story of two boys on an Indian reservation in the Southwest, and Dorothy Canfield, who is one of the Club's judges, comments that it is highly reminiscent of Mark Twain's stories.

Soviet correspondent Konstantin Simonov relates in "No Quarter" that one day a member of the special section of the Northern Army said to him happily, "There will soon be something interesting for you. We've captured three German officers." "What are their ranks?" he asked. "I don't know yet."

"Are they still with the regiment?" "No," the informant seemed embarrassed, "the fact is that these prisoners haven't arrived at all. . . . They were captured forty miles behind the German lines. . . . Fifteen of our frontier guards have penetrated that far and it is they who have taken the prisoners. They radioed that they are bringing us three officers and that they will cross the line in two or three days." Three days later, on schedule, the prisoners were brought in.

News Of Police, Fire Departments

Recent incidents which required the attention of Daly City Police and Fire departments included:

On Thursday, February 3, at 9:20 p. m., Officer August Benassini recovered a 1930 Nash sedan which had been stolen in San Jose from Natale Arcomona of that city. He placed it in the Daly City Garage until it could be claimed by its owner.

Companies 1 and 4, D. C. F. D., as well as Engine 33, S. F. F. D., responded to an alarm from the box at Mission and Templeton, Friday, February 4 at 8:12 p. m. A LaSalle sedan belonging to Carl Lawdgrei, 283 Irvington street, was on fire at Huron and Mission streets. The blaze was under the hood and did considerable damage.

Policeman Henry Sundermann jr. broke up a free-for-all at Donati's tavern, February 5, at 4:45 p. m. One of the men involved, Theron Huggins, was treated for cuts on the back of the head received in the brawl, by Dr. Ivan T. Budaeff.

Sergeant Ricco Benedetti and Officer Sundermann reported to the scene of an auto accident, February 6, 8:20 p. m., opposite 214 School street. The cars were driven by John Perada, 50 Gambetta street, and Faustino Gianino, 68 First street, Colma. Only slight property damage resulted.

Monday morning, February 7, at 11:40 Chief of Police James G. Reardon received a telegram from Sheriff Beasley of Tukumcari, New Mexico, advising him to hold William Edward Ward, 127 Flournoy street, Daly City, as he was wanted in the New Mexico city for car theft and assault with a deadly weapon. Beasley said he had a felony warrant for Ward and would extradite him if local officers picked him up.

At 2 p. m., February 7, Officer Benassini set out to find Leonard Lamendola, 382 Willits street, reported lost by his mother. He found the 3 1-2 year old, curly-haired lad at School street and Railroad avenue and returned him to his home.

Museum Purchases Rubens' Painting

The M. H. de Young Memorial museum, Golden Gate park, announces the purchase of a magnificent oil painting by the famous Flemish master, Peter Paul Rubens (1577-1640). The large painting is now being displayed inside the entrance of the park museum in a specially constructed framework. The subject of the painting is "The Tribute Money," and the composition of nine life-sized figures, seen to the knees, illustrates the passage in the Twenty-second chapter of Matthew, sixteenth to twenty-first verses.

The painting is especially prized because it shows so well the master's own brushwork, done in the period when Rubens himself worked on his paintings from conception to completion. It is in rich, warm reds, ambers and browns, soft grays and grayed blues; attention is focused on the Christ by a shaft of light emanating from the upper left of the picture onto him, and by the golden are each valid for a pair of shoes. These two stamps will be good indefinitely.

When the new ration token plan goes into effect, February 27, food ration stamps will be good for a much longer period than at present. So Mrs. America will be able to budget her food points over a longer period without having to be crowded by expiration dates. And tokens, which will be given in change for stamps, will be valid indefinitely. Another feature of the ration token plan which will simplify the food rationing programs is the fact that all stamps validated after February 27 will be worth the same—ten points each. Thus, housewives will have only two denominations of ration currency for both meats and fats and for processed foods—the one point ration tokens and ten point stamps.

Good news ahead for home canners who need materials! Metal cans, glass jars and the closures for them are expected to be available in needed quantities. As a matter of fact, the new supply of home canning jars is expected to be more than four times the number produced in 1941. Further, metal cans for home and community canning are under no limitations, and there are no restrictions on the manufacture of lids and closures for home canning use. So with victory gardens and necessary materials for canning, a record home preservation program is anticipated.

Keep an eye on the care of the tires on the family car and be sure to recap them in time. The tire situation is so critical that drivers who do not use their cars in connection with their work must depend on recapping for or they will continue to be ineligible for tires of any sort. Only the most essential drivers will qualify for new tires, and if they cannot find them available they may get ration certificates for grade three tires—used and war tires. Motorists who use their cars for less essential occupational driving will be eligible for grade three tires.

Ration points for waste fats are given housewives on the basis of net weight of the salvage material turned in to the butcher. That means the dealer is to deduct the weight of the can in which the fat has been saved.

Since the OPA authorized dealers to give housewives two meat-fat ration points for each pound of salvaged fat turned in, the government drive for waste fats has more than doubled. These salvaged fats go into the making of explosives, sulfa drugs and other vital war materials.

"The Tribute Money" was executed during the period that marked the beginning of Rubens' artistic maturity. Painted in 1612, and in a remarkable state of preservation, it merits an outstanding position in the ever-growing collection of major works of art the de Young museum is acquiring through the years.

U. S. Census Bureau Needs 300 Workers

The U. S. Census bureau immediately needs 300 men and women as census takers or enumerators. President Roosevelt's committee on congested production areas is conducting a special population survey to determine the immediate problems on food, clothing and shelter in swollen population areas. After one or two days of preliminary training enumerators will list, by street and number, the dwellings and structures in the counties of San Francisco, Marin, San Mateo, Alameda, Contra Costa and Solano. Census takers will work in crews in their own neighborhoods. Positions are for 60 days and applicants must be United States citizens with at least two years of high school education and be able to write legibly.

Women not now working are especially desired and will receive $6 a day, with overtime pay on Saturday. Men are preferred for part-time night work.

The U. S. Census Bureau office, 46 Kearny street, San Francisco, the U. S. Civil Service offices, Federal building, San Francisco, and Post Office building, Oakland, and United States Employment services have full information.

Friday Court Sees One Major Fine

In a light session, Friday, February 4, Judge William J. Sweeney meted out only one major fine at city court. Harvey E. Clark, 249 Page street, San Francisco, paid $100 for drunken driving in Daly City. This was his second offense and his operator's license was suspended. Otto W. Williams, of the same address, who was a companion in the car at the time, paid a $10 fine for violation of Daly City Ordinance No. 209, being drunk in a public place.

There has been a notable improvement in the over-night parking situation, Sweeney said, with violations on the decline. He warned, however, that warrants will be issued for those who disregard tags calling their attention to Daly City's "no over-night parking" edict.

It has been revealed by the sheriff's office that Eli Jennings Stump, whom Judge Sweeney sent to county jail, January 28, in lieu of payment of $250 fine for pulling a gun at Wit's End tavern, is an escaped convict from the West Virginia penitentiary.

From men stationed somewhere in the fog-bound regions of the Aleutians comes a request for oil paints, brushes, canvas—any artists' materials. Long hours of idleness hang heavy on the hands of Army men in this area where not many forms of recreation are available.

Local Board Chairman Reports On Rationing

Housewives have been given a weapon by Congress against overcharges which they can use effectively, according to Monsignor Egisto Tozzi, chairman of Board No. 33-12-3, office of Price Administration, which serves Daly City.

Under the Emergency Price Control act, Monsignor Tozzi explained, shoppers have the right to sue for three times the overcharges or the sum of $50, whichever is greater.

He said this was done because Congress realized that only by enlisting the cooperation of the consumer in the fight to hold the line against excess charges could the battle against inflation really be won.

The board chairman also said that housewives have another check against paying excess prices through the price panel of their rationing board.

"Complaints about overcharges made to the price panel are investigated by this group of board members," he said, "without involving the shopper who made the report, and an effort is made to bring the merchant into compliance with OPA regulations."

Monsignor Tozzi emphasized, however, that "most dealers are abiding by OPA prices and regulations." He said, "those who might get careless will be on their toes if they realize women are on the alert for overcharges."

Monsignor Tozzi also revealed that the OPA had taken steps to get low priced women's and children's dresses, coats and other outer garments back into production.

He said that beginning February 1, 1944, manufacturers who normally made these garments for sale in the lowest price lines had been granted authority to make slightly higher priced lines, in order to bring more garments on the market.

The modification means, for instance, that a manufacturer who had specialized in cotton house dresses to retail at $1.69 can now make dresses to sell in a $1.98 retail price line.

Monsignor Tozzi announced the appointment of three new board members, A. E. Mahlstedt, Community Service member; C. S. Barnes, Mileage Panel member; C. A. Robbins, Price Panel member. All are residents of South San Francisco, where the board headquarters is located at 470 Grand avenue.

HONEY ORANGE MARMALADE

- 1½ cups prepared fruit
- 2½ cups honey
- ½ bottle fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, remove skins in quarters from 1 medium orange and 1 medium lemon. Lay quarters flat; shave off and discard about half of white part. With very sharp knife cut remaining rind into fine shreds. Add ½ cup honey, ½ cup water, and 1/16 teaspoon soda. (This honey is in addition to the 2½ cups specified.) Bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove sections of fruit pulp free from membrane. Add pulp and juice to cooked rind; simmer 20 minutes longer. (If orange is very sweet, add juice of 1 extra lemon.)

Measure honey and prepared fruit, solidly packed, into large kettle, flooding each cup with juice, or if necessary, with water. Bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin hot marmalade at once. Makes about 6 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

THERE'S plenty of variety in the food housewives can select for their dinner tables this week-end.

While beef and poultry remain scarce and veal supplies are decreasing, the markets still have good quantities of lamb and pork. People who like smoked hams, fresh calis, sausages and frankfurters will find these items especially plentiful.

And there's plenty of potatoes, both Irish and sweet, to go along with the meat, according to the A & P Service for Homemakers. For vegetables for the Sunday dinner housewives will find that tasty broccoli is arriving from Texas in plentiful quantities, the supply of bunched carrots is increasing and there are enough beets, cauliflower and cabbage.

When it comes to salads, tomatoes are limited in supply, with prices rather high, but the housewife can vary the dish with avocados, celery, escarole, oranges and grapefruit.

The following suggestions are offered for Sunday dinner menus:

- No. 1
 - Sliced Oranges
 - Braised Pork Chops
 - Fluffy Sweet Potatoes
 - Pickled Beets
 - Rice and Raisin Pudding
 - Coffee
- No. 2
 - Cream of Celery Soup
 - Jelly Omelet
 - Hashed Brown Potatoes
 - Spinach
 - Lemon Meringue Pie
 - Coffee
- No. 3
 - Tomato Juice Cocktail
 - Irish Stew with Dumplings
 - Broccoli
 - Citrus and Avocado Salad
 - Apple Tapioca
 - Coffee or Tea

Pershing P. T. A. Honors Founders

Mrs. L. G. Evans, recording secretary for the Seventeenth district, C. C. P. T., and Mrs. Marjorie Woodside, district Founders Day chairman, were guest speakers at the Tuesday afternoon, February 1, meeting of General Pershing P. T. A., held at the school. Mrs. Sophie Evans, president, conducted the meeting, which was both Founders Day and fifteenth anniversary for the unit.

Mrs. Sadie Welsh was in charge of the impressive candlelighting ceremony. Since it was the fifteenth birthday of the unit, a history of the organization was read by Mrs. Getha Mejia, historian.

Mrs. Welsh was asked to represent the unit at the district's Founders Day program, February 17. Mrs. Mildred Rasor was appointed chairman of the nominating committee.

The president, Mrs. Evans, presented Mrs. Rasor with a Life Membership during the meeting.

Mothers of the unit are assisting with the sale of War Bonds and Stamps at Pershing school each week. Currently they are conducting a salvage drive for coffee jars. Mrs. Frances Phillips is chairman of this fund raising project.

Mrs. Vera Cerrito was named chairman of the popcorn sale to be held, Friday, February 25, at the school.

Pershing will furnish three of the numbers on the program for the joint Founders Day observance to be held at the high school auditorium, Tuesday evening, February 15.

Following the February 1 program, refreshments were served under the supervision of Mrs. Martha Stone, reciprocity chairman. There was a large birthday

Daly City Post To Aid In Service Program

In accordance with a request made of all American Legion posts by the Office of the Commanding General of the Ninth Service Command of the Army Service forces, Daly City Post No. 410 will put into operation a plan to assist servicemen and their families in Daly City.

Although Army Emergency Relief is functioning in camps and posts its effects in civilian communities is incomplete and that is where the Legion has been asked to step in, the local legionnaires explained. The Service committee of Daly City Post No. 410 is ready to protect those the Army service fails to reach. Many men, honorably discharged from the Army do not know their rights nor how to insure them, the Legion pointed out.

Information for men who have left the Army but are entitled to benefits, and their dependents, may be had by calling on Vice Commander Marall Smith, Service officer for the local post, 488 Willits street, DElaware 9438, or Commander John J. Derungs, 399 Westlake avenue, DElaware 4564. Further details of the program will be announced later.

On Saturday, February 5, Mrs. Curtis A. Krummes and Mrs. Irvin Derrick took the Pershing graduates who are entering Crocker to a theatre party at the Daly City.

On February 4 a special executive board meeting was held at the school to determine what should be done about the school cafeteria. The ladies decided not to open the cafeteria, this year.

War Council Meets Thurs., February 17

Next meeting of the Daly City Civilian War Council will be held, Thursday evening, February 17, at the city hall, 75 Wellington avenue, beginning at 8 o'clock. Main topic of discussion, as at the February 3 session of the council, will be the reorganization and registration of all local civilian defense workers. Arthur J. Bodien, director, again appealed to all volunteers to fill out and turn in their federal personnel record forms as required in order that they will be protected under insurance compensation.

He pointed out that Red Cross workers should register with the local war council in order to be entitled to this compensation coverage too.

Mrs. Imelda Jackson, recently appointed personnel officer for the local war council, has begun work on bringing the files up to date and preparing for the necessary reorganization.

The local council is cooperating with the State Director of Civilian Defense in an effort to curb loose talk about the war effort, particularly in regard to the movement of troops and equipment.

"Blithe Spirit"

Now At Curran Theatre

"Blithe Spirit," described as Noel Howard's happiest and most irresponsible comedy, is now at the Curran theatre, San Francisco, for a brief engagement. Four noted stars, Clifton Webb, Peggy Wood, Mildred Natwick and Haila Stoddard, head the original New York cast, coming from 682 performances on Broadway. The play is sponsored by John C. Wilson, who directed it.

Dealing with the unexpected results of the seance that leaves a peace-loving novelist not only with a living wife but also with the enchanting and mischievous shade of his first marital partner, "Blithe Spirit" ran for two years in London and for 87 weeks in New York. Its distinguished cast also includes such prominent players as Philip Tonge, Valerie Cossart and Doreen Lang. The settings are by Stewart Chaney and the gowns from the collection of Mainbocher.

During the engagement at the Curran there will be performances nightly with a matinee on Saturday.

Julia tells
How to cook
macaroni and
spaghetti

EVER HEAR of "Mezzanelli"? Or "Foratini"? No, they're not opera singers. Mezzanelli and foratini are simply sizes of macaroni—sizes you won't find on the labels of many packages. But if you did, you'd be able to prepare them just as you would spaghetti or any other size or shape of macaroni.

Because, believe it or not, all the various macaroni products (excepting noodles, which usually contain egg) are made of the same ingredients: flour, water, and salt. The size and shape (tubular, elbow, shells, etc.) simply add interest to their appearance.

And what real meals you can make with these foods! Consider that good old stand-by:

MACARONI AND CHEESE

1 1/2 lb. uncooked macaroni 2 tps. dry mustard
4 tbsps. shortening 2 cups milk
4 tbsps. enriched flour 1 1/2 cups grated cheese
1/2 tsp. salt

Cook macaroni in large amount of rapidly boiling salted water until tender; drain thoroughly. Melt shortening; blend in flour and seasonings. Add milk gradually; then add 1 cup of the cheese and cook until thick, stirring occasionally. Combine macaroni and cheese sauce in well-greased 1 1/2-qt. baking dish. Sprinkle with remaining 1/2-cup cheese. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) until cheese is melted and well browned, about 30 minutes. Serves 6.

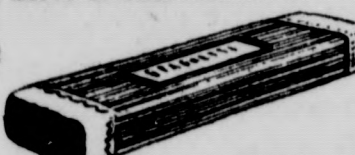

Incidentally, I've found that all macaroni products cook to better advantage uncovered, in plenty of water well salted—about 4 qts. of water and 1 tbs. of salt for each 1/2-lb. of the macaroni. The water must be boiling hard—and you add the macaroni slowly so the boiling won't hesitate. Best kind of kettle to use is a wide and shallow one.

And here's another macaroni-product dish which meets with consistent favor in my home:

SPAGHETTI MARCO POLO

1 1/2 lb. uncooked spaghetti 1 tsp. salt
2 tbsps. garlic 1/2 tsp. pepper
2 tbsps. finely cut parsley 1/2 cup grated cheese
2 tbsps. salad oil or shortening 3 cups cooked tomatoes

Cook spaghetti in large amount of rapidly boiling salted water until tender; drain thoroughly. Saute chopped garlic and parsley in hot salad oil until garlic is slightly browned. Add tomatoes and seasonings. Cover and cook slowly about 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Force mixture through sieve. Add sauce and cheese to hot spaghetti and mix well. Serve at once. Serves 6.

Sometimes you may cook more of some macaroni product than you can use immediately. How to store the leftovers? Simply put them in the refrigerator, in a covered dish. How to reheat them? Rinse them in water, drain thoroughly, and heat in a sauce.

A real meal with macaroni? Try it, and you'll be convinced!

The public will be given 30 days' notice, should it become necessary to terminate Shoe Ration Stamp 18. This announcement was made recently by OPA to "kill" scare-buying rumors that the validity period of Stamp 18 might be cancelled with only 24 hours' notice to consumers.

BROWN POINTS FOR WASTE FATS

For every pound of fat a housewife turns in to her meat dealer or other fat salvager, she receives two meat points, beginning December 13. "But most important," Herbert M. Faust, director of WPB's Salvage division said, "within a month the fat will be transformed into war materials and on the way to the fighting fronts." He reminded housewives to save the grease from turkeys,

These Volcanoes Are Edible

YOU'LL find it easy to follow the instructions below and make a company dessert that will surprise and delight. If you can't get cinnamon red-hots at your store, use some other strongly flavored candies or spice up your apple sauce in your favorite way.

As for the whipping cream, well, if that is not available, beat one cup of chilled light cream with two tablespoons powdered sugar until frothy. Add one teaspoon lemon juice and beat until stiff. It's best to have the bowl and beater thoroughly chilled for this process. Cream from the top of a bottle of rich, fresh milk, which has stood in the refrigerator for 48 hours, may also be used in this same manner.

Now try your edible volcanoes.

Volcano Rennet-Custard
Apple Sauce:
1 cup stiff apple sauce
2 tablespoons cinnamon red-hots
Whites of 2 eggs
Whipping cream

Set out 4 or 5 nappies or dessert glasses. Heat apple sauce with cinnamon red-hots until dissolved (5 minutes). Cool. Beat the whites of eggs until stiff and dry. Add apple sauce mixture, 2 tablespoons at a time to egg whites. Beat until stiff. Heap apple sauce whip in dessert glasses in the shape of volcano with cone in top (1). Have the top slightly higher than top of dish. Pour rennet-custard around (2).

Note: To make a good stiff apple sauce, choose tart cooking apples such as Jonathans. Five good-sized apples make about 1 quart when peeled, cored and sliced. Add to them ½ cup water, cover closely, and cook about 20 minutes. After the first 5 minutes, shake the pan vigorously rather than stir it, to prevent sticking. When apples are soft, add ¼ cup sugar and whip with a spoon to produce a sauce. If the sauce is not stiff enough to remain slightly heaped up even while hot, place it in a shallow pan in a very slow oven, and cook until sufficiently dried out, stirring occasionally.

Rennet-Custard:
1 package vanilla rennet powder
1 pint milk, not canned

Measure 1 pint (2 cups) cold milk, (not canned) into saucepan. Warm slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY warm (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from stove. Stir contents of package into milk briskly until dissolved — not over one minute. Pour at once, while still liquid, around apple sauce volcano. Do not move until firm — about 10 minutes. Chill. Just before serving, drop a puff of whipped cream into the "crater" of each volcano (3), and serve immediately (4).

Junior Red Cross Ships Four Cases

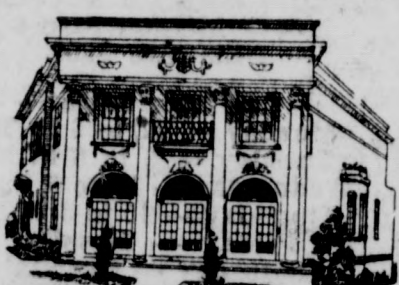

The Junior Red Cross of the Jefferson Elementary School district sent off four cases of fun books and puzzles, Friday, February 4, for wounded servicemen at hospitals in this area.

The gay books were made by girls and boys in the art classes of the district schools. They represent a great deal of work and thought on the part of the youngsters, according to R. L. Crane Jr., superintendent, and supervisor of the program.

geese, ducks, and chickens, for the manufacture of war products.

CANNING SUGAR NOW AVAILABLE

Housewives may now get 5 pounds of canning sugar by using Stamp No. 40 in War Ration Book Four. OPA has announced, and additional canning sugar later will be available on application to local boards. Stamp No. 40 will be good 13 months, through February 28, 1945.

News From District Grammar Schools

AT CROCKER

Room 3 is very proud of its record made, last week, when War Bonds and Stamps were sold. Two students bought bonds and many bought stamps. The total purchases reached $120.75.

Last Sunday, William Lyman of Room 2 went fishing at La Honda.

Richard Ryan, Room 6, visited friends in Martinez, Sunday.

Joan Siino celebrated her birthday on Saturday by having a party. Many of her classmates of Room 4 were there to wish her a happy birthday.

AT WOODROW

Lora Barghini, the president of the Woodrow Wilson elementary student body, is proud to report that Woodrow Wilson is the winner in the tin drive for the elementary schools of the Jefferson district.

Ruth Olson, Room 4, brought in more tin than anyone in the room. The weight was 500 pounds.

The high sixth and low seventh grade came in second in the tin drive in their school, having collected 1,574 pounds of tin. Arthur Rud of the low seventh grade brought in more tin than anyone else in the room.

Room 15 wishes Betty Jean Cherry speedy recovery from the flu.

This week Room 9 is having topics on famous men and women of the Middle Ages. Research work has taught them many new facts.

Barbara Biagini purchased her second War Bond in two weeks.

The children of Room 14 are proud of their 100 per cent record in contributing to the "March of Dimes."

The high fifth and low sixth have been reading about flowers in science. For their art lesson they drew pictures of these flowers.

AT JEFFERSON

Usually the Jefferson elementary school news begins with eighth grade items of interest, but this week the kindergarten news comes first. This is because the Farm unit in the kindergarten is just about the gayest, most attractive, make-believe farm ever seen!

The Jefferson farm is located in the long bay window of the kindergarten. A cute fence about 15 feet long and 6 inches high protects the farm on the classroom side. The farm is divided into three sections; the house and garden, the chicken yard, and the barn yard.

Vincent and Edward were responsible for building the house. Linda and Helen were particularly active about constructing the barn and chicken house. Linda also did some landscape gardening, near the little home, by planting nasturtiums. Ronald added a neat bed of carrots to give a Victory Garden touch to the set-up.

The chicken yard was filled with mother hens and chicks, little yellow ducks and big turkeys. The barnyard boasted a motherly cow and big eyed calf; a friendly horse, some big and little dogs and on the fence perched two fat pussies. Against the back of the barn was a prodigious stack of hay.

Every child in the room, even the very littlest five year old, had a share in building and creating the quaint, little dream farm.

For many years, it has been the custom of the low eighth grade to give a graduation party to the high eighth. The teacher helps and advises, of course, but keeps in the background, encouraging her pupils to use all their originality and bright ideas in getting up the affair. Despite war time restrictions this year's party, which was held in the library, was an unusually attractive and

LIFE MEMBERS

Graduating members of the C. S. F. who are receiving life memberships are: Bianca Ratto, Nancy Sorg, Marie Smith, and Don Nelson.

Bianca Ratto is planning to attend the University of California and Nancy Sorg will attend San Francisco State college.

Other seniors of the graduating class will attend junior college or college, enter some branch of the armed forces, or seek employment.

A number of new folk dances have been taught in the last few weeks and the girls seem to be learning them quickly.

They have been studying both grandmarching and folkdancing. Some of the dances they have learned so far are: "Schottische," which seems the most popular; "Paul Jones," "Varsouviana," "Rye Waltz," and an English folk dance called "Black Nag."

MUSIC

Music lovers who last enjoyed the "Original Don Cossacks," Russian male chorus, are planning this time to attend the performance of John Charles Thomas at the War Memorial Opera house, Tuesday, April 4.

VISITORS

Recent past graduates, now in some branch of the armed service, were seen on the campus last week. They were Eddie Allen, now in the Coast Guard; Ralph Capps, former student body president, Navy; Evelyn Ciemoli Kennedy, Marines; and Allen Rigler, Navy Air Corps.

ESSAYS

Students of U. S. history had to put on their thinking caps last week because anyone receiving a B- or above had to write a Lincoln essay. We'll see the results of their efforts later.

OFFICERS

Well, election is over now and here are the results: Lenore Ross, president; Deloris Thomas, vice-president; Lois Rich, secretary; Marjorie Schreiber, treasurer; and Helen Capps, judge.

Those for the offices of sergeant-at-arms and yell-leader will be appointed.

Inauguration of officers was held in assembly, Monday, February 7.

CONTRIBUTION

Jefferson has contributed almost $35 to the Leonard Wood Memorial, American Leprosy Foundation in New York, for the eradication of leprosy.

PERFECT SCORE

Rooms that were 100 per cent during the month of January were those of Miss Mary Louise Bergquist, Miss Hilda Bloom, Oscar Busch, Miss Elda Della Mora, Walter Griffith, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Beth Learned, Mrs. Dorothy Pendergast, Mrs. Fannie Hayes, Miss Dorothy Smith, Miss Edna Smith, and Martin Van Waynen.

It's common sense to be thrifty. If you save you are thrifty. War Bonds help you to save and help to save America. Buy your ten per cent every pay day.

The Jefferson school colors, red and white, were used for the color scheme of table and room decorations. The clever little favors made of nuts, representing graduates in caps and gowns, were made by George Riccomi of the seventh grade. In the center of the table was a large beautifully decorated graduation cake. The refreshments were carefully prepared and appetizing.

A varied program included favorite old songs, an original song called "Dear Old Jeff," class jokes, a class prophecy by Nathan Agresti, accordion solos by Eugene Lagomarsino, and a short speech to the graduates by Caroline Fuchs of the low eighth.

An additional note of hilarity was given to the party when the children exhibited pictures of themselves that had been taken from the time of entering kindergarten to grammar school graduation days.

Everyone present agreed that the party was the most wonderful they had ever attended.

Opera Association

Announces Two Events

Two events of major importance will be presented by the Opera association in the War Memorial Opera house the weekend of Washington's birthday.

The first of these will be Mia Slavenska, famous prima ballerina and her dance ensemble in the first appearance of this organization here Sunday afternoon, February 20. This will be followed Tuesday evening, February 22, by Richard Crooks, popular tenor of the Metropolitan and William Primrose, said to be one of the great violinists of today.

Although this is the first appearance here of Slavenska at the head of her own company, she is not unknown to dance audiences in San Francisco, as she was formerly one of the most popular members of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. In this she is remembered for her work in Swan Lake, Giselle, Gaiete Parisienne, Scheherazade, Sylphides, and the Nutcracker.

Some of the stars of her group are David Tihmar, formerly of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo and more recently of the musical comedy "Oklahoma" and Jack Gansert, star of the famous Joos ballet.

The concert of Crooks and Primrose recalls the artistic success of their program here just a year ago. Crooks program will include arias from his favorite operatic roles, songs from the classics and moderns. Primrose has an extensive repertoire of classical and modern music.

Tickets for both Mia Slavenska and the Crooks-Primrose concert are now on sale at the Opera box office, Normandy lane, City of Paris, EXbrook 8585.

True Blue LOL Installs Officers

The first regular meeting of California True Blue L. O. L. No. 118, since the installation of officers for 1944 will be held, tomorrow evening, February 11, at Masonic hall.

The installation, which was held, January 15, was quite a colorful event. The State Grand Deputy Grand Master McGrandle and his staff of state grand officers installed the officers-elect of the Bay area.

A large gathering of the fraternity witnessed the ceremonies. In a stirring address McGrandle commended the Bay district lodges on their fine spirit of loyalty to the war effort.

Past State Grand Master Swan and Masters-elect Dundas, Peterson, Burton and Hale added their support to McGrandle's address.

Worshipful Master Allin McCahon, head of the local group, expressed the appreciation of the assembly to the S. G. D. M. and his corps of officers for their fine exemplification of the installation ceremonies, also expressing regret that influenza had deprived the meeting of William Cornwall, P. M., secretary of No. 118. A banquet and entertainment followed the installation ceremonies.

Apportion Gas Tax Money To County

State Controller Harry B. Riley today apportioned $65,600.71 in gasoline tax money to San Mateo county as a part of a $11,540,428 distribution for the quarter ending last December 31. San Mateo county's share was computed on the basis of motor vehicle registration of 50,846. Net payment was only $28,819.80 as $36,780.91 went for repayment of unemployment relief loans.

Controller Riley said the apportionment was $1,664,098, or 12.60 per cent less than that for the corresponding quarter last year.

Riley distributed one-third of the $11,540,428 to the counties, and deposited the balance of $7,693,619 in the State Highway fund. From the latter amount, the Division of Highways will allocate $1,923,405 to be expended for highway construction and maintenance within cities of California, and the balance of $5,770,214 remaining in the highway fund will be expended on the State Highway system.

Anderson Reports On Navy Discharges

Discharges in keeping with services rendered are now being given to all enlisted personnel of the Navy, under a new program recently adopted by the Bureau of Naval Personnel, according to word received, this week, from Congressman Jack Anderson, this (Eighth) district's representative in the national capital.

After numerous complaints about the types of discharges given to enlisted men of the Navy, Anderson, a member of the House Naval Affairs committee, appealed to the Navy Personnel Bureau to change its methods, and grant honorable discharges to all enlisted men whose records of service entitled them to such discharges. Now, Anderson has been informed by Captain A. N. Bledsoe, personnel director, every enlisted man who has served in the Navy without blemish on his record will be given an honorable discharge.

Formerly, the Congressman said, this was not the case, and many men released from the Navy were granted questionable discharges of which they were ashamed, or dissatisfied, because of circumstances beyond their control. Now, Anderson reports, only those enlisted men whose service records are bad will receive dishonorable discharges. Whether for medical or other reasons, he adds, all others will be honorably discharged.

Anderson also announced today the annual competitive examinations for appointments to cadetships in the Coast Guard Academy. The examinations will be held, May 10 and 11, and will be open to all physically qualified candidates between the ages of 17 and 22 years, who are unmarried and meet the specified educational requirements. Success leads to a commission in the Coast Guard, and further information can be secured from Vice Admiral R. R. Waesche, Coast Guard commandant, Washington, D. C.

Eagles Arrange Old Timers Night

Described as "the meeting of all meetings," Old Timers' Night to be held by Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, F. O. E., Thursday evening, February 17, at Eagles hall, is expected to draw a large crowd for the festivities.

Otto Schramm, chairman of the committee on arrangements, pointed out that there will be outstanding entertainment as well as a delicious chicken dinner.

The class initiation for that evening will be conducted by Past Worthy Presidents Jim Reardon, Arthur Bodien, Schramm, William J. Sweeney, Fred Klingler, Emil Nessier, Larry Shaw, Hugh Rodgers.

During the evening all members who joined the aerie twenty years ago will be honored by receiving 20-year pins. Recipients of these pins will include Bert Meritt, Fred Michelson, Lester Harbaugh, Fritz Hanson, A. Bigazzi, Fred Collins, Carl Genheimer, William Popino, and Dean Schrieber.

The local aerie is to take charge of the vice-president's part of the initiatory work when all aeries of the county greet Grand Worthy President Robert Hanson at San Mateo, Sunday, February 13.

QUALITY - SERVICE - CONVENIENCE

With ceilings effectively standardizing prices of nearly every food item, many people are too apt to consider there is small choice of markets left them. However, selling price is not the only factor in food costs.

Here at the Westlake Market, quality and service have always been our biggest concern in caring for the needs of Daly City households. And Westlake customers are still assured of getting the best grades of food items, at the lowest prices at which it is possible to sell them. Our service includes the added help that only a neighborly store can give.

Our convenient location is still another factor which can save you actual money, as well as time and worry. Drop in at our handy corner regularly—you'll like it.

MAKE IT EASY FOR YOURSELF!

Remember the days before rationing? All you needed to know was the price of meat, and whether or not you had enough money to buy what you wanted. Then came the meat shortage, and some days you stood in line for hours, only to find everything sold out when it came your turn.

Next you were given an allotment of ration stamps which had to be turned in on meat purchases. But still the dealers' supplies were short, quality was doubtful, prices went up and up, and you had to take what you could get.

But that's ALL changed now—at least, if you shop at the Farmer's Meat Company store.

For we're on a strictly "quality meat, low price, cheerful service" basis. We again offer you a wide choice in meats of the high quality upon which we built this business, and at prices competitively low. Our friendly, helpful service will do much to take the "sting" out of your food rationing problems.
